

Director-General

Statement on ITER Progress

The ITER project in November 2017 has reached a significant milestone: the completion of 50 percent of the total construction work scope through First Plasma. This is no small achievement. It represents the collective china

eu

india

japan

korea

russia

usa